

CBNGLOBAL

Since its inception in 1985, CBNGLOBAL have been assisting foreign companies achieve their corporate objectives in China. CBN have managed more than 250 successfully completed projects in China.

Specializing in industrial projects, CBN's client list reads like a roll call of the world's most successful industrial companies including Ford, G.M., Caterpillar, Eaton, John Deere, Curtiss Wright, Joy Mining, and many more.

CBN staff average more than 10 years tenure with the organization. Skilled in both engineering and business, they bring their vast experience "know how" and energy to every project objective.

Since 2015, CBNGLOBAL have been a part of the American Industrial Acquisition Corporation (AIAC) providing exclusive China project services to their group of companies.

Biography: Dr. Eamon McKinney, PhD, M.B.A.

Dr. Eamon McKinney is an eminent sinologist who is widely regarded as one of the foremost authorities in the world on China related business issues. He has been actively involved with China foreign business for more than 40 years and was instrumental in the first modern Sino-Foreign joint venture in 1980.

Since establishing CBNGLOBAL in 1985, he has advised hundreds of foreign companies on their China strategies including Ford, G.M. Caterpillar, Rolls Royce, Eaton, Johnson Controls, Honeywell, Curtiss Wright, Joy Mining and many others.

He has authored 6 books on the subject and has contributed numerous articles to such publications as the Financial Times, the Economist and Far Eastern Economic Review.

In his role as CEO of CBNGLOBAL, he oversees all the China related projects on behalf of the A.I.A.C group of companies.